ROCKY GROVE HIGH SCHOOL

This is our school. We have made it what it is today by what we have made of ourselves. Eachone of us has played an important role in making Rocky Grove High School stand for the best that America has to offer. It is here that each senior leaves the sheltered, happy, carefree years behind and moves into the unsheltered years ahead. We have many memories to take with us, memories of the way our school has prepared us to meet the new age. May we meet the demands of the new age with boldness and with courage.

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1957, dedicate our yearbook to James C. Albright. Besides teaching plane geometry, trigonometry and English 9, he not only finds time to act as the advisor for the junior class but also devotes many additional hours in lending his support to other school activities.

We will remember him especially as the driving force behind the planning and successful functioning of the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet--an important event in our school life.

Because we realize and appreciate the time, effort and understanding that he has given us, we are happy to take this opportunity to acknowledge our admiration and respect for him through this dedication.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

This is the class of 1957. For twelve years we have been preparing for life in an adult world. Our teachers and parents have tried to educate us so that we might lead happy, successful lives in the changing world of tomorrow. We know that we have benefited by their guidance.

Now we have attained our first important goal--graduation. We know that we will have other goals and successes, but none will be quite as impressionable.

STRICTLY FORMAL

HARVEST DANCE

Each year the Hilltopper Staff sponsors the Harvest Dance. This year Jim O'Day and Fae Grettler were chosen King and Queen of the Harvest Dance by a vote of the senior class. The qualifications were a pleasant personality, faculty approval, and an average of C or better. What with the pumpkins, autumn leaves, corn shalks, and amber lights, our paper moon appeared to be a real harvest moon shining down on us that autumn evening.

JUNIORS

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

Ah, juniors at last! The school seemed to take on a new aspect. We left our childish, sophomoric ideas behind and launched forward under the capable leadership of our class officers and adviser.

The high spirits of the class helped us make a great success of the junior play in April and the all important banquet and prom in May.

Our class has been well represented in all school activities and here's looking forward to a great year in 1957-58.
